

EXECUTIVE CHEF SANDRA MARTINEZ

Originally from Mexico City, Capital of Mexico, Executive Chef Sandra Martinez was lured into the culinary world when her passion for this industry and for food was recognized at an early age.

Sandra graduated from UNAM College in Mexico and immigrated to San Jose in early 2001. Sandra began her culinary journey at Black Angus Steakhouse as a line cook working her way up to a kitchen supervisor. A few years later Sandra moved on as Sous Chef at a restaurant specializing in Italian cuisine in California.

In 2011, under Executive Chef Luis Moreno, Chef Sandra Martinez started to work at Nemea Greek Taverna as a Sous Chef. She started to develop her own style, technique, and knowledge. Chef Sandra's culinary philosophy and passion reflects the growing trend towards a healthier, down-to-earth lifestyle projected by the people of the Mediterranean.

Chef Sandra continued her personal growth and development for 5 years and early in 2016, the Tsigaris Family gave her a great opportunity to continue working with them as an Executive Chef in charge of the family business. Since then, Chef Sandra has focused on delivering the Tsigaris Family Commitment to the Customer.

“We believe that every dish we serve presents a new opportunity and a new challenge for perfection”

